

SEE MORE FLORAL
DESIGN AT PORTRAIT-
MAGAZINE.COM/FLOWERS

ke color, unexpected elements can change the seasonality of a bouquet. Dahlias, a late summer standard, is perfect for winter when paired with black queen anne's lace, black elderberries, and wheat. www.floretflowers.com

- [1] grapes
- [2] coleus
- [3] amaranth
- [4] dahlia 'Bracken Rose'
- [5] dahlia 'Twilight'
- [6] dahlia 'Crossfield Ebony'
- [7] black queen anne's lace
- [8] scabiosa
- [9] basil
- [10] copper beech
- [11] black elderberry
- [12] lisianthus
- [13] scented geranium 'Chocolate'
- [14] wheat
- [15] nine bark 'Coppertina'
- [16] thornless blackberry

FOR A DASH OF DRAMA GO FOR

DARK

This moody bouquet includes: grapes, coleus, amaranth, dahlias 'Bracken Rose', 'Twilight' and 'Crossfield Ebony', black queen anne's lace, scabiosa, basil, copper beech, black elderberries, lisianthus, scented geranium 'Chocolate', wheat, nine bark 'Coppertina' and thornless blackberries

FLORAL DESIGN Erin Benzakein, Floret Flowers

